SENATOR BOONE'S BIG FEET.

The Difficulty He Had in Washing Them at a Neighbor's House.

From Sketches of Early Indiana.

In the early days of Indiana, one of the State Senators was a good-natured giant named George Boone. When he stood up his height attracted attention, for he measured nearly seven feet. If he made a gesture, his hands were noted as the largest ever seen in that State. But it was his feet that amazed his colleagues.

When about 18, young Boone thought he would call on a neighbor who lived a few miles off. Sally, the neighbor's daughter, was large and pretty, and the youthful giant thought she would make him a suitable wife. It was late in the fall, though too early to put on shoes, so that he started barefoot. His best buttoned-colored suit had been made some six months before, and was much too small for him. The pantaloons reached only just below his knee, while the coat stretched as tight over his body as an eel skin dried over a hoop.

After wading creeks and muddy bottoms the would-be-sparker arrived at the neighbor's log hut just as the family were sitting down to a supper of mush and milk. Being invited to draw up, he sat down alongside of Sally. The old lady offered him a large bowl, which he stretched forth his hand to take. Not making sufficient allowance for the size of his hand, he struck the big milk pitcher. Out went the milk all over the table, and out went Sally from the room, roaring with laughter.

The old lady kindly remarked: "It will rub out when it dries;" but the youth knew that he was already rubbed out, so far as Sally was concerned. He saw nothing more of her. The clock struck ten.

"Mr. Boone," asked the old lady, "won't you wash your feet and go to bed?"

"Yes, ma'am." "Here's an iron pot; it is the only thing I have that'll do." The pot proved too small for his feet to enter, except by sliding them in sideways. When in, they swelled so much that he could not get them out. The pain was intense. As the clock struck 11, the old lady asked:

"Mr. Boone are you not done washing your feet?"

"What did this pot cost?" he roared; "I must break it." "A dollar."

"Bring me the axe." Breaking the pot in pieces, he handed the old lady a dollar, opened the door and started for home. Several years after he met Sally at a husking. As soon as she saw him she burst out laughing.

The Great Trouble With Women's Forms.

A fashionable dressmaker tells the Cincinnati Enquirer that the chief trouble with women's forms is their irregularity. "The number whose two sides do not correspond is wonderful. Sometimes one shoulder is higher than the other, sometimes one hip is bigger, and sometimes the whole figure is awry. Women's dress, in this era of clinging garments, reveals every imperfection, unless art comes to nature's help." Pads are often sufficient to produce symmetry, according to this artist, but stopping is something that the dressmaker's art cannot remedy. "It is a common defect in American girls," she says. "Round backs are distressingly numerous, and what can we do for them? Nothing at all. I feel sometimes like putting them asak, and then strapping them flat on a board, Japanese fashion, in the hope of straightening them. Parents ought to look sharp after their little girls in this particular, and put braces on them if necessary."

A Voyage in a Snow Boat.

From the Winona Republican.

A gentleman who has recently returned from the western end of the Winona and St. Peter road states that he met a couple of men upon a snow boat, just this side of Watertown, and they gave him a ride. A distance of thirty-two miles was traversed in three hours, they taking a direct course for a station and paying no heed to fences, all of which were under the snow. The boat was constructed similarly to an ice boat, had a rudder, and was easily managed.

The Horse and the Gander.

From the Riedville Times.

Mr. W. T. Blackwell of Durham has a stud of fifty horses, and among them is an old spotted fellow who has been laid by for the good he has done and to this old horse a gander has taken a wonderful attachment, and deserted the flock of geese that runs in the stable yard and roosts every night with the horse in his stall. The gander will show fight if one enters, and if the horse is separated from him seems to be miserable.

PAY THE PIPER.

The latest news from Lima, under date of March 16, leads to a hope that peace and quiet have at last been restored in Peru. Victorious Chile has at last presented terms of peace to her vanquished sister. The new Peruvian President, D. Calderon, took the oath of office at Magdalena, a little village two miles from Lima, March 12. The terms of peace which the leaders mediate imposing on Peru are, first: The cessation of Antotagasta, Tarapaca and Tacna; second, an indemnity based on the following points: First, the expenses of the war, embracing the cost of armaments, provisions, equipage, clothing, salary of the army, freights, and, in fact, every expense directly caused by the war; second, the payment of compensation to the army, in conformity with a law to such effects to be passed by the Congress; third, the payment for the vessels Esmeralda, Los Corvintos and Janguas, also for the iron clads Manco, Capoe and Atahualpa, the Caravelle Union and the transports Rimacora, Tallanman, Chalaco and Linares; third, the indemnification for the Chileans expelled from Peru and Bolivia; fourth, Peru to undertake not to fortify her ports during fifty years, nor to acquire a navy during forty years; fifth, Chilean products to be received in Peru and Bolivia on the same terms as those of the most favored nations, and Chile to concede similar advantages to those from the two republics; sixth, the extraction of guano from the Peruvian Islands, to be carried on for the account of the Government of Chile, and the proceeds, after deducting the cost of extraction, to be divided equally between Chile, Peru and the foreign creditors. Peru is recognized up to the 1st of January, 1879. After the payment of the creditors of Chile and Peru to divide the proceeds equally, but the part belonging to Peru shall be received by Chile until clauses 2d and 3d of this treaty have been carried into effect; seventh, Chile shall maintain a force of 10,000 men in such parts of Peru as it may deem fit, and its vessels shall have free and frank entrance to Peru. These troops shall be maintained by Peru, as provided by the Commissary-General of the army, and shall remain in Peru until clauses 2d and 3d have been carried into effect; eighth, as Peru and Bolivia are consolidated, Chile will treat only with Peru for the payment of this indemnity; ninth, all doubts arising in reference to this treaty shall be settled by arbitration.

THE ORPHANS' HOME BUSINESS.

A GAZETTE reporter visited Carson yesterday and interviewed a large number of persons on the Orphans' Home business, and we are free to confess that it is too muddy a subject for us to decide upon. We publish in another column an interview with Mr. Sessions, who ought to be an unbiased witness, as he is a Democrat while Mills and the other two members are Republicans. Mr. Sessions had nothing to do with the appointment, and certainly ought to have no motive in keeping a bad man there. We are willing to give the fullest publicity to both sides of this business. There are doubtless many difficulties in the way of governing boys and girls of all ages, picked up out of vile homes and off the streets, as many of the inmates of this institution are, and it is altogether likely that whipping is often absolutely necessary to discipline.

All efforts to recover the body of Eugene Burge, who was drowned in the Humboldt a week ago last Monday, have so far been unsuccessful.

The Ormsby House in Carson has been bought by Col. John Rosser, for $6,500.

Lyon county's tax rate this year will be $3.05 on each $100.

Lander county's tax is $3.90 on the $100.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

A new theory has been started to account for murders. It is held that there are two forms of disease responsible for nearly all capital crimes—brain tumor and brain softening. Thus the post-mortem examination of Lammons, recently executed for murder, showed a small bony tumor under the medulla oblongata. The brain of Menckelou, who lately suffered the death penalty in France for a horrible crime, was found to be much softened and in other respects abnormal.

Such items as the following from the Sentinel show Eureka to be solid: A competent miner says the Richmond has acres of good ore. The Albion ore body is magnificent. It is worth fighting for. Eureka Con. is described as looking better than at the date of the great lawsuit with the Richmond. It has paid several million in dividends since that suit.

The N. Y. Sun has this lucid reference to the Comstock: "The Comstock mines are exhausted, and the stock, which at one time sold at more than $100 a share, is worth about $1." The Sun evidently thinks the Comstock is one mine, and shares in it are sold under one name.

An exchange says "the entire Bible has been translated into the language of the New Hebrides, a group of islands in the Pacific ocean, and the natives have paid the whole expense of printing it." The natives have had the old version palmed off on them no doubt. Too bad to impose upon the unsuspecting heathen thus.

Mr. David Plunkett is credited by Harper's Bazar with having said that "some parts of Ireland are so damp that even the snipe have neuralgia, and nothing but green plover and a dispensary doctor can live there."

Moody & Sankey have gone East over the Southern Pacific. They were invited to wrestle with the devil on the Comstock, but thought the odds too heavy against them, and prudently declined.

The New York Herald says: A bald-headed old gentleman from New York recently visited Niagara, and, after looking a while at the Falls, said, "All it needs is a ballet."

The Lyon County Times says: "Let the Chinamen eat all the pork and trichinae will settle the Chinese question."

The New York Sun has an inquisitive correspondent who wants to know when the new Bible goes into effect.

The National Banking System.

To the Editor of the N. Y. Tribune.

Six—The National Banking system is the best that ever existed in this country. It has done more toward bringing about prosperity, by giving us a stable currency, than all the acts of the Democratic party for the last twenty years. Consequently there has been a deep-seated jealousy in the Democratic heart, and an itching desire to be able to make an attack on the banks should there be anything done by them that could be tortured into the semblance of an offence. The Republican party is the father of the National banking system. Proud of its child, it will always defend it from the attacks of the demagogue or the communist.

BY TELEGRAPH.

The Great Flood in the Missouri.

OMAHA, April 9.

The Missouri continued rising all day, and at 6 o'clock P. M. had risen about one foot in 24 hours. The flood is now at its height. It has fallen at Yankton, but reports this morning say that the big gorge twenty miles below Yankton, and reported to be fifty miles long, has not yet gone out. There are from two to three feet of water in the Union Pacific shops, and four and six feet in the smelting works. It has been a sort of holiday here, nearly every man, woman and child visiting the river front to see the remarkable sight, which they may never witness again.

The situation on the east side of the river, at Council Bluffs and the Union Pacific depot, is fully as serious as it is at Omaha, and, perhaps, is more so. About half of Council Bluffs is under water to the depth of from one to three feet, and many persons have been compelled to leave their homes and take shelter in the higher part of town. A broad and heavy stream, coming in from the bend north of town, is flowing through the place, and runs down Broadway, the principal business street, past the Pacific house. This stream is said to be eighteen inches deep in the vicinity of the Pacific house, and water is within six inches of the steps of the Ogden house. The south part of the town is flooded by a stream from the north, and by back-water from the river. Water is within three or four inches of the floor of the Union Pacific depot and hotel, where many families have sought shelter. No trains on any eastern road were able to get into Council Bluffs this morning to the flooded tracks, and they were held within sight of the town.

No Eastern passengers or mail arrived in Omaha to-day. The Union Pacific approach to the Missouri River bridge is flooded to such an extent at Spoon Lake, just west of the transfer depot, that the transfer has to be made by boats and by shoving flat cars through the water over the small bridge. The Union Pacific sent out its west-bound express late this afternoon, with but few passengers, there being no Eastern connection. Omaha is cut off in every direction except to the West. Passengers to the East this afternoon who wished to venture were transferred over the river. Possibly trains may get into Council Bluffs tomorrow and also leave for the East. The Kansas City, St. Louis and Council Bluffs to the Pacific Junction, which is used also by the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy, and also temporarily by the B. and M. in Nebraska, is under water, and washed so badly that trains cannot run over it. It is expected to accommodate the above roads with an outlet to-morrow over the Wabash, St. Louis and Pacific road. The trains on this last road got within sight of the Union Pacific transfer depot to-day, but had to back out. Several hundred freight cars in the railroad yards at Council Bluffs are more or less submerged. Eastport, a village of two or three hundred people, opposite Nebraska City, is inundated, and the people will have to go elsewhere until the water subsides.

Important for Nevada.

LONDON, April 10.

Another great memorial from the London bankers has been presented to Gladstone, urging that England should be represented at the Paris Conference. It is thought that Gladstone will ultimately yield in this matter.

Conkling's Tribute to Carpenter.

MILWAUKEE, April 9.

The remains of Senator Carpenter arrived this afternoon at 2:15. There was an immense throng of people, fairly blocking the streets in the vicinity of the depot, waiting to give a token of remembrance of Wisconsin's illustrious Senator. The remains were taken directly to the Court House, escorted by a large procession, where the casket was placed upon the raised dais prepared for it. Senator Conkling stepped forward, and addressed Governor Smith as follows: "Governor: We are deputed by the Senate of the United States to bring back the ashes of Wisconsin's illustrious son, and reverently and tenderly return them to the great commonwealth he served so faithfully and loved so well. To Wisconsin the pale and sacred clay belongs, but the memory and fame of Mathew Hale Carpenter are the Nation's treasure, and long will the sisterhood of States mournt the bereavement which bows all hearts to-day."

Governor Smith responded. The house was thronged all the afternoon by the people who came to honor the statesman's memory. The funeral will take place to-morrow afternoon, and will be the most impressive scene ever witnessed in Milwaukee.

Another Account of the Accident.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 11.

A dispatch from Redding, Cal., says the passenger train on the Oregon Railroad, from Sacramento due last night, met with an accident about 5 miles below here at a place called China Gulch. The whole train went over the trestle, and the engine and cars were a total wreck. The following named were killed and wounded: Geo. Smith, engineer, killed; Rogers, fireman, killed; Robert Johnson, messenger, leg broken; Ben. Kuhr, of San Francisco, badly bruised. The other train men were more or less injured. Several passengers were in the rear car but it did not go off the embankment and they escaped. The cause of the accident was a cloud burst which raised the creek so high that it washed out the embankment.

Earthquake in California.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 11.

An earthquake yesterday morning, at 2:15 o'clock, was felt throughout the central part of the State. It lasted from ten to fifteen seconds, doing no damage.

LAWS OF THE STATE OF NEVADA.

Passed by the Tenth Session of the Legislature, 1881.

CHAP. LIX.—An Act fixing the compensation of the various county officers (deputies) and of jailors in the several counties of this State.

[Approved February 26, 1881.]
The people of the State of Nevada, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. From and after the passage of this Act the Deputy County Recorder, and Deputy County Clerk, and the jailor of the several counties (applicable to this Act as hereinafter stated) shall receive a monthly compensation in the sum of one hundred dollars each for their services so rendered, respectively; provided, the provisions of this Act shall be applicable only to counties of this State polling not less than sixteen hundred nor more than two thousand votes at any general election held in this State.

Sec. 2. The several officers named in this Act shall file their respective bills for the monthly compensation with the County Clerk of his county, duly authenticated, and the same shall be allowed by the Board of County Commissioners of the said counties, by virtue of this Act, and the same to be duly audited by the County Auditor, and the Auditor is hereby authorized to draw a warrant on the County Treasurer payable out of the Salary Fund.

Sec. 3. In case there be no funds in the Salary Fund, the Auditor is hereby authorized to deliver to the person or persons a certificate of indebtedness for the amount so allowed, the same to be registered (in number and date) as allowed by the Board of County Commissioners and approved by the County Auditor.

Sec. 4. All Acts and parts of Acts in conflict with this Act are hereby repealed.

CHAP. LX.—An Act authorizing a State loan.

[Approved February 28, 1881.]

The people of the State of Nevada, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. For the purpose of keeping the State on a cash basis, without resorting to an onerous rate of taxation, the sum of two hundred and twenty thousand dollars is hereby authorized to be borrowed from the following educational funds in the State Treasury for the use and benefit of the General Fund of the State, viz: The State School Fund, the State University Fund, and the State University Fund, Ninety-Thousand-Acre-Grant (so called).

Sec. 2. Said loan shall bear interest at the rate of four per cent. per annum, and shall be payable at any time within ten years from the passage of this Act. The said interest shall be paid semi-annually on the first days of July and January of each year, on the written order of the State Board of Education to the State Controller directing him to draw his warrant for the amount of said loan or the State Interest and Sinking Fund herein created. All sums derived from interest on money borrowed from the State School Fund shall go into the General School Fund of the State; and all sums derived from interest on money borrowed from the State University Funds, as herein mentioned, shall go into those respective funds; and for the regular and prompt payment of said interest the faith and credit of the State is hereby pledged.

Sec. 3. The State Treasurer is hereby authorized and empowered to transfer from time to time, as the necessity may arise, the money in the funds herein authorized to be borrowed from the General Fund of the State, until the limit of two hundred and twenty thousand dollars is reached, whenever, however, he makes such transfer he shall deposit in the fund borrowed from, a bond or bonds, duly authorized, equal in amount to the sum transferred, which bond or bonds shall state in substance that the State of Nevada owes the sum borrowed from the amount transferred on a certain day to the General Fund, that it promises to pay the interest on that amount semi-annually, as herein specified, at the rate of four per cent. per annum, and that it will pay the principal within ten years from the date of the approval of this Act.

Sec. 4. The State Controller shall cause the bonds to be prepared that are to be used in pursuance of this Act, which bonds may be either written or printed. The said bonds shall be signed by the Governor, countersigned by the Controller, and endorsed by the Treasurer, and authenticated by the Great Seal of the State.

Sec. 5. There shall be levied and collected for the fiscal year commencing January 1st, 1881, and annually thereafter, until the bonds provided for in this Act are fully paid, an ad valorem tax of ten cents upon each one hundred dollars of all taxable property in this State, including the proceeds of the mines. The revenue derived from said tax shall be paid into the State Interest and Sinking Fund and is hereby set apart, appropriated, and pledged, as well as the faith and credit of the State of Nevada, for and to the payment, both principal and interest, of all bonds of said State issued in pursuance of the provisions of this Act.

Sec. 6. It shall be the duty of the Treasurer and Controller to make definite arrangements for the payment of the interest on said bonds when the same shall become due at least sixty days before the time of payment, and in the event that said interest and Sinking Fund, as in this Act provided, is insufficient said Treasurer and Controller shall draw on the General Fund for such purpose, and in the event that said fund proves inadequate the said officers are hereby authorized and required to make such contracts and arrangements as may be necessary for the payment of said interest and the protection of the faith of the State.

Sec. 7. Whenever at the time of paying the semi-annual interests of the bonds provided to be issued by this Act, there shall remain a surplus, after the payment of such interest, over and above the amount which it may be necessary to reserve for the payment of the next semi-annual interest, of one thousand dollars or more in the fund created by the Sixth Section of this Act, such surplus shall be applied to the payment of the loan her-in authorized to be made by the cancellation and retirement of bonds to the amount of such surplus.

Chicago's L. test Addition.

In the special Pullman car attached to No. 2 on Saturday night, accompanying her father and friends, was Miss Florence Pullman, a little lady of thirteen, who opened the valve on the great centennial Corliss engine, in new Pullman car works at Chicago on the 3d day of this month. The works have been built in a suburb of Chicago, and promise to be a very important part of the Lake City. They will soon be able to turn out 25 cars per day. Locomotive works will follow, and the new town of Pullman will have 10,000 inhabitants right away. The town is well laid out, has gas and water works, a railroad depot, good sewerage, etc. The Company owns 3,500 acres of land.

Latest From Wood River.

There is high water in the Wood River country, and the roads are so bad that no stages are running on some routes. L. A. Hall, a route agent for Wells, Fargo & Co., has just returned from Little Wood River, thirty-five miles from Bellevue. He tells the Silver State that there are over 100 persons from different parts of the country at Blackfoot, awaiting the opening of the roads to the mines. He expresses the opinion that Wood River will equal, if it does not exceed Leadville.

Business Failures in Nevada.

Compared with the first quarter of last year the business failures in Nevada so far this year indicates a more prosperous state of affairs. For the same period last year there were 14 failures, with $289,418 as the liabilities and $309,193 as the assets.

Save the Water.

WHAT THE BOARD THINKS.

An Interview With a Member of the Orphans' Home Board.

A GAZETTE reporter called upon Hon. E. C. Sessions yesterday, at his office in Carson, and got his story of the serious charges of cruelty in the Orphans' Home. The reporter asked, "Is it expected that any change will be made in office of Superintendent of the Home?"

Mr. S.—No Sir.

R.—Does the Board find so little truth in the charges of cruelty that they intend to retain Mr. Mills?

Mr. S.—There is no cause for removal. The newspapers have raised a howl, and have published only what suited them. Mr. McCarty, of the Chronicle, was present when L. L. Crockett and I examined the Gray boy in Virginia, and he saw fit to publish the story exactly as the boy told it. You know how very likely a boy, angry from punishment, would be to color his story, even if he did not lie about it.

R.—Has any attempt at investigation been made by the Board?

Mr. S.—Yes, the Board after we came back from Virginia went to the Home, and after asking the teacher and Mr. and Mrs. Mills to retire, we questioned the children. They talked very freely, and we found from their stories that Gray had lied in his report to us in Virginia. His story did not agree with that of the children at the school at all. The boy attacked Miss Harris with an iron poker, and she flogged him soundly with a riding whip which some of the children had picked up.

R.—Was the boy beaten in an inhuman and cruel manner, as charged in the Appeal and Chronicle?

Mr. S.—Not cruelly at all; not out of proportion to his offense; not more than I, and perhaps you, have been whipped for some piece of insubordination. He was not punished any more than was necessary to the discipline of the school.

R.—What excuse has Miss Harris to offer for spanking middle-aged girls before the school?

Mr. S.—Miss Harris did not spank any girls before the school, and she did not spank middle-aged girls at all. She took some little girls behind the stove and spanked them, but there was no exposure. None of the children could have told from anything they saw that the children were being spanked at all. They heard blows, and knew they were being punished.

R.—How about the "Humiliation" theory of Miss Harris?

Mr. S.—Any punishment is a humiliation. Miss Harris could not inflict punishment without humiliating the subject. It is the humiliation, and not the bodily pain, which constitutes the punishment. So Miss Harris was perfectly correct, so far as the theory goes. She punished, not to break the spirit of the children, but to humiliate them and break down their stubbornness.

R.—What was the spanking for?

Mr. S.—Singing is part of the exercises of the school, and some of the girls refused to sing. One even refused to repeat the words of a song after Miss Harris. To have allowed such insubordination in one thing would have affected every branch of study, and destroyed the discipline of the school.

R.—What about the Mordant girl?

Mr. S.—That girl had fallen into the habit of using a very improper epithet, and when Mrs. Mills ordered her to pick up the towel she applied it to her in an undertone. If you had a daughter of your own and she had such a habit you would thrash her thoroughly.

R.—How about Weir?

Mr. S.—Weir was in jail at Austin for attempting to stab a man before we took him. He is half crazy and has a mania for being in jail. He would whine around and threaten to kill himself when at large, so we got him into the county jail for a few days, but finally brought him to the Home and locked him up. He seemed perfectly happy when locked up, and miserable when free. He was very sick once, and Mrs. Mills took care of him and brought him out all right. One evening Mrs. Mills kept him in after school for punishment. While they were alone, he sprang at her, saying: "I'll kill you, you s— of a b—." He struck her with his fist, knocking her down, and blacked both of her eyes. She screamed, and her husband ran in, but in time to catch Weir, who ran out doors and could not be found until morning. Mills then gave him a good flogging, and he certainly deserved it. If you found a big, burly fellow beating your wife you would not stop to consider whether you were Superintendent of an Orphan's Home, or what. The report gives Weir's age as 12 years, but it must be a mistake, as he is a big, strong fellow, with a beard starting out all over his face.

R.—How about shipping him off on the sly?

Mr. S.—The law allows the Board the privilege of discharging anyone and sending them to their friends if it seems best. Weir said he had friends in California, who wanted him to come. We bought him a ticket and sent him to them.

R.—Will the Board take any further action in this business?

Mr. S.—Probably not. They met last Thursday, but there seemed to be nothing to do. A joint committee of the last Legislature investigated all the charges, and reported favorably of the management. They found nothing in all these questions but what was satisfactorily explained.

The New Orleans Minstrels.

Of this company Saturday's Enterprise says: "Let all bear in mind the fact that there is fun ahead for tomorrow (Monday) night at the Opera House. It is the opening night of the New Orleans Minstrels—thirty in number—and a big time will be seen, as they are the genuine old-fashioned plantation people. Their big street parade will also be a thing that our people will do well not to miss. There is sure to be a big house, as a great number of seats have been sold, and as all like to see genuine Ethiopian antics and hear the natural melody of the colored man, let those who desire to be comfortably situated for both seeing and hearing make it a point to select their seats to-day or very early to-morrow."

Burglars Around.

Rev. C. McKelvey's house was broken into yesterday afternoon, between 1 and 2 o'clock, while the family was at Sabbath school. The burglars went in at the front gate, and broke open the rear door. They ransacked the house, and took $35 in coin, a gold watch that had been through the fire and some trinkets. Mr. McKelvey thinks he knows the thief.

H. C. Fairchild was arrested on suspicion of being the man who broke into Mr. McKelvey's house. His boot fits the track found in the yard. He will have a hearing before Judge Young to-night.

Hall of Honor.

Following is the roll of honor in the North Truckee school district for the month ending April 8th: Josie Gulling 96, Bessie Gault 98, Emma Ross 95, Minnie Smith 96, Fan nie Johnston 95, Johnnie Gulling 98, Charlie Bryant 94, Frank Smith 98, Joe Laking 93, Charlie Ross 97, Harry Griswold 93, Jimmie Gault 99, Robert Laking 95. Neither absent nor tardy, Charlie Ross. MINNIE B. GIBBS, Teacher.

New Railroads for Utah.

It looks as if Utah would have a railroad boom. A new company, known as the Sevier Valley road, has two engineering parties in the field, and has let 200 miles of grading, from Salina east to Grand river. They are also striking south running a line to the Colorado river, in Arizona. The northern terminus of the system will be Ogden. The company has plenty of money, and will have a good system of roads.

—The specimen of ore sent in from the new mining district between Pyramid Lake and Mud Lake assayed $342.11, of which $7.53 was gold and $334.58 silver.

—Miss Blanche Leonard, late of Reno, was married to C. C. Staley in Tuscarora on the fifth instant. Both are members of the Grace Hazlep Comedy Company.

—When stocks are booming business improves with everybody, because people spend money freely. The White House is already reaping its share of the benefit from the rise in stocks.

—The School Trustees have been obliged by the new law which forbids them to contract a debt, to keep the schools closed this week. It is likely be fixed by next Monday.

—In the school examination held Saturday there were four successful candidates. Misses Mollie Grippen and Flora Northrop received first-grade certificates, and Misses Minnie Gibbs and Mary Taylor, second-grade.

—The Reform Club entertainment last Saturday evening was of more than usual interest. Rev. Mr. Jenvey made an earnest address on the progress of the temperance movement, and the literary and musical programme presented was excellent.

—A ghastly joke was perpetrated on the street yesterday by a Hebrew citizen. He was speaking of the Comstock, and said he believed there was a big mine in Sierra Nevada or Scorpion right under the Jewish burying ground. He said the Jews were lighting on money, and were bound to be where it was, living or dead.

Seriously Injured.

The Silver State says: "George Hymer, who has been hauling ore from Bullion of Paradise mine to the Sedan mill, was seriously injured a few days ago. The team, consisting of ten animals, in making a short turn upon the wagon on which Hymer was riding, throwing him down the hill, which is quite steep and covered with loose bowlders, and breaking his collar-bone and several of his ribs. Dr. Powell, who was called to dress his wounds, considers the injuries very serious, if not fatal."

The Block of Rock.

The block for the National monument from Nevada, is to be 2 feet by 3 feet and six inches thick, of highly polished granite with raised panel with this inscription, "All for our Country, Nevada, 1881." It is now being prepared in Virginia City. The letters are to be lined with Silver Emblematic of the State.

Perils of Poker Playing.

Doc. Callison, who killed George Turner in a poker game at Candelaria last Sunday, had his preliminary examination on Friday and was discharged from custody, it being held that he acted in self-defense.

Going to Try It.

The Vivian mill on the Carson will probably start up in about a week on low grade ore from the Belcher.

Personal.

B. F. Bacon is moving his family to Verdi.

E. Niles, of the Carson Times was in town Saturday night.

The Carson Appeal bears that Hobart, the V. & T. conductor who mysteriously disappeared from here about a year ago, is employed on a railroad in Peru. The truth is he is in Australia.

Wise Men.

The Wild Goose and Bullion of Paradise have been tied up for some time on account of lawsuits. It seems, according to the Silver State that they have compromised, and it is said that the Wild Goose company will commence taking out ore through the Bullion tunnel next week.

A Fortunate Discovery.

What has all along been supposed to be one of the walls of the Starr & Grove ledge, at Lewis, was cut into last week. The supposed wall proved to be a continuous ledge of free-milling ore some four feet thick, assaying as high as $170 in silver.

A Fatal R. R. Accident.

On Saturday a train went into Clear creek bridge, near Redding, on the California and Oregon, killing George Smith, the engineer, and Rogers, his fireman. Smith is a brother of Ben. Smith, traveling engineer of the Central Pacific.

Changes on the V. & T.

Empire station will soon be closed, and the telegraph office removed. It is probable that the same will follow at Franktown, and there if some talk of closing Steamboat, but that is very unlikely.

Minstrels at Truckee.

The New Orleans minstrels will play in Truckee next week. The troupe is very fine and the fun is immense. The papers where they have shown speak very highly of them.

BAD BIRDS

The Waspish Tempers of Sweet Singers
How the Furie Rage in Feathered Breasts.

From the London Globe.

At this season of the year, when a deeper crimson comes upon the robin's breast, bird life is thought to be ideal happiness. If we are to believe a competent writer in the current number of The Squire, such is not the case. Birds, we are assured, have all the bad qualities of mankind. They are deficient in love for their offspring, and have no more conjugal affection than the traditional rover. Their moral nature is often depraved. They hiss, and scold, and swear, and exhibit terrible pugnacity. The majority of singing birds have the tempers of wasps, and are apparently never so happy as when they are quarreling. A fourth of their lives is, we are told, passed in scolding and fighting. In their singing season, which is also their time for mating and contention, severe pitched battles, fought between candidates for matrimonial life, are of continual occurrence, males and females engaging in the fight on the slightest provocation. Those of the stronger sex are, of course, the more pugnacious, and often fight till they are killed. The females also fight furiously for the males, and we are sorry to hear that, when the contest is over, the conquerors march off with the object of their choice, "unless they should be met on the road by other viragoes, and compelled to give up their husbands by force." It is said to know that the latter are so ungallant as to seem indifferent as to which shall win them, and remain idle spectators of the struggle. A male bird will allow two hens to fight for him until one of them is killed, and then with due humility accompany the victor.

At this period of the year, especially, the woods and fields are described as the scenes of desperate battles. Shrieks of triumph and shrieks of defeat mingle with the love notes of the newly-mated. Strife is visible everywhere throughout the feathered creation. The very notes we hear at dawn of day are, we are assured, more the result of rivalry and ambition than of joyous thanksgiving, the feathered songsters being desirous of drowning the voices of others, or of excelling them in vocal powers in the presence of females.

Keen in Texas.

From the Austin Dispatch.

It is all nonsense trying to get the Legislature to suppress the game of keno. Members of the Legislature themselves take a hand at the game, and many may be seen any night "fighting the tiger" in some gambling saloon on our public thoroughfare. A pious member of a leading Austin church made his money in this way, and now loans it out at heavy interest, while his victims struggle along as best they can.

A young Italian painter, Signor Carlo, who has just arrived in Paris, has been astonishing a select circle of spectators with some wonderful performances in the way of rapid execution. A member of the company chooses a subject, and, without a moment's reflection, the painter proceeds to depict it on a large canvas, six feet by three. In four or five minutes the picture is finished and replete with details. Of course, being produced at such a rate, the work leaves much to be desired; but, as an instance of lightning speed, with a harmonious ensemble, it is simply marvelous.

In the French Chamber of deputies a few days ago M. Laroche Joubert, a Bonapartist, proposed the sale of life titles at the rate of 10,000 francs a year for duke, 5,000 francs for marquis, 4,000 francs for count, 3,000 francs for baron, and 2,000 francs for the peerage. He calculated the receipts at 100 millions, and considered this better than the present system of usurping titles, under which it was not easy to distinguish the spurious from the genuine. The proposal was referred in the ordinary course to the bureau.

Some of the members of the opera companies are not singing in harmony. Byron and Chatterton of the Strakosch and Hess troupe, had a fight on the stage of the Toronto theatre, the trouble being about a woman. Laurent and Greensfelder of an "Olive-tree" company had an altercation behind the curtain at Providence, the cause being similar. The prima donna of the Peerless Opera Company whipped the tenor, at Columbus, Ga., because he hissed her in too realistic a fashion.

A citizen of New Mexico being informed that, in his absence, a panther had attacked his wife, and that she had been killed and the animal, merely shrugged his shoulders and said: "Ef that panther had knowed her as well as I do he'd never a riled her up, you bet."

Jones: "I see Smith has taken to riding a bicycle. What on earth is he doing that for?" Robinson: "Oh, a very simple reason—to prevent Mrs. Smith from going with him!"

Profit, $1,200.

"To sum it up, six long years of bed-ridden sickness, costing $200 per year, total $1,200—total of this expense was stopped by three bottles of Hop Bitters taken by my wife. She has done her own housework for a year since, without the loss of a day, and I want everybody to know it, for their benefit."

Is thorough in its Medicinal Action, and yet so agreeable to the taste that patrons often disregard our injunction to divide the lozenge into parts (say two doses) to meet their respective cases. At the outset it is especially essential to observe the directions closely till one becomes accustomed to its use—when mild action and the most satisfactory results are sure to follow.

Ladies and children, and those who dislike taking pills and nauseous medicines to secure cathartic action, are especially pleased with its agreeable qualities. Try it once, and you will esteem it highly as a safe, pleasant, and effective remedy.

DYSPEPSIA. It is for the cure of this disease and its attendant, SICK-HEADACHE, NERVOUSNESS, DEPENDENCY, CONSTIPATION, PILES, &c., that these Pills have gained such a wide reputation. No remedy was ever discovered that acts so speedily and gently on the digestive organs, giving them tone and vigor to assimilate food. This accomplished, the NERVES are BRACED, the BRAIN NOURISHED, and the BODY ROBUST. Try this Remedy fairly and you will gain a Vigorous Body, Pure Blood, Strong Nerves, and a Cheerful mind.
